ANDREW LOGAN

DIRECTOR

From television and Las Vegas to concert stages everywhere, Andrew's creative vision has been seen and enjoyed by millions. He is the driving force behind the NAACP Image Award nominated series Verses and Flow on TV One. As both Producer and Director he has guided the show through 6 successful seasons. He directed Jessie J's music video for "Crazy Bout U" from the Oscar nominated film "Silver Linings Playbook". He conceived and directed Glee star, Lea Michelle's Dove commercial as well as the "mash-up" featuring Julie Andrews, using original footage from "The Sound Of Music". He was responsible for Weezer's "One Night Only" concert at the Dune's Motel in Los Angeles for AXE, taking over the entire motel and creating a concert venue. Andrew made his Las Vegas directorial debut with Toni Braxton's critically acclaimed "Revealed." His association with Ms. Braxton began when he directed her U.S "Libra" tour. He created and directed Fall Out Boy's "Young Wild Things" Tour as well as their "Honda Civic Tour". He directed and conceived Las Vegas natives Panic At The Disco "Nothing Rhymes With Circus" U.S tour as well as the "At The Movies" Tour & "A Smooth Jazz Christmas" 10th Anniversary Tour for sax player extraordinaire Dave Koz. For six years, Andrew was the artistic and tour director for the Verizon Wireless Tour "How Sweet The Sound", the search for the best church choir in America. He has worked with such legendary gospel artists as CeCe Winans, Dorinda Clark Cole, Yolanda Adams, Marvin Sapp, Hezekiah Walker and Donald Lawrence. As the creative director for the Grammy winning gospel group Mary Mary, he directed their US Tour, "The Sound" as well as their performances for the NAACP Image Awards, BET 's Celebration Of Gospel, Dove Awards and The Tonight Show. He also directed their US Tour "Still Something Big" co starring Bebe and Cece Winans.
